This Hiking tour will make you explore the highest jungle mountain in Bali named Mt Abang. In this adventure we will climbing the jungle of Mt Abang; visit some very unique Temple that are located in the jungle and on the top of the Mountain. Beside that we also will be able to see amazing view of Batur lake, Mount Batur and amazing Sunrise.

DAY 1: SUNRISE TREK TO MOUNT ABANG

The height of mount Abang is 2,152 meters above sea level. It is the second highest mountain in Bali. The peak of the mountain can be reached by hiking in more or less 2.5 hours.

Mount Abang is known as a very virgin mountain by Balinese people. The pathway of trekking is sort of a pilgrimage to top of the high spirited ambience. Along the trekking tour you will pass the green tropical forest that has grown for hundreds of years. The trekking tour is believed to be more energized as you pray at a temple during the trekking tour to the top of Mount Abang.

The summit of Mount Abang offers you a promising panorama of the magnificence of the green tropical nature of Bali's high land. During your trekking tour here you will also witness the true Balinese daily life. After reaching the top of the mountain, on your way to the starting spot of the trekking you will halt at a traditional Bali Coffee Processing or Bali Agro tourism. This is a spot to see many tropical plantations. In this place you can also see how to make Balinese coffee in a very traditional way. Moreover, you will also get some samples of the coffee as well as local herbal teas. What is special here is that you can try to taste the unusually processed coffee. This distinctively different kind of coffee is called "Kopi Luwak". The coffee is produced naturally through the help of civets. Probably, this kind of coffee is the most expensive one in the world. The true spirit of Bali island and the Balinese people are here in Mount Abang. And below the Location Starting Point of Mount Abang –
